April National Newsletter

Inspiring, Developing & Engaging Future Government Leaders

Miguel's Corner

During the last 12 years, YGL has been providing a powerful voice to aspiring government leaders throughout the nation. We started with a group of young government employees wanting to network; today we're a proud a national organization comprised of 14 chapters and over 8,000 members. As President of YGL, I had the privilege of talking to many you and was excited to discover a group of individuals full of enthusiasm, creativity, passion for service, and above all a burning desire to stand up and be counted.

NextGen Award Nominations

Know an exceptional public servant who's intelligent, exuberant, and keen on improving government? Then nominate him/her for this year's NextGen Public Service Award. Finalists will get VIP Passes to the 2016 Next Generation of Government Training Summit to be held in Washington, D.C., this summer.

Nominations are open until April 15. Click here for the form.

Public Service Recognition Week

Join the weeklong celebrations to honor the thousands of men and women who serve our nation as federal, state,

When we get together for trainings, events, and conferences, we send a clear message that we're ready to make a difference. The YGL National Leadership has been working non-stop during the last six months developing new strategies and I am honored to be part of a community that wants to lead the charge of change our government desperately needs. Follow us on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter to find out the latest happenings.

14 and Growing...

The YGL community continues to grow with four more new chapters coming into the fold as of March 2016. Let's give a warm welcome to the cities of Chicago, Indianapolis, Nashville, and the state of West Virginia for deciding to join the YGL family!
